MAY 2019

NEW STAFF UPDATE...

And it's all good news!!! After many weeks of searching for new employees, we have hired two teachers. Miss Kelsey will be working full time in the Infant and Toddler room so Miss Jami can move in to the 3's room and team teach with the other new teacher Miss Gisela. Both teachers are coming to us from other centers and are working on their degrees in ECE. They both seem very enthusiastic and motivated so we are hoping for a long-term relationship!

LADDER OF ACHIEVEMENT:

Infants & 1's: Emily is standing and trying to jump!!
Haydn is rolling over and almost sitting up!
Our older 1's are singing, talking and trying new words each day!

3's: Almost all of the 3's are potty trained!
4's: Congratulations to Matthew, who is doing a great job reading and writing. Kelsey is coming right along too, learning new words every day!

Exclusion Policy

We are now required to make parents aware of our exclusion policy. It is as follows:
Situations may occur where we will ask a parent to remove his or her child from our center. It is very rare and it would only occur after diligently working with the family to resolve any issue. We also utilize a professional network to seek help and advice before a decision is made to excuse a child. If after working with the family and the child is still extremely disruptive or has a potential to cause injury to another child then we would ask for them to seek care elsewhere.

HEALTH FORM REQUESTS...

Emails were sent out to parents of children who need their health forms updated. If you received the email please contact your pediatrician and send in a new health form as soon as possible. If a physical is needed for completion of the form please email us with a date of the physical.

KIDS SAY THE FUNNIEST THINGS:

1's: Harper came in one morning and shouted, "I'm back!"

2's: Miss Meghan saw Jack's Mom and said, "Hey Jack! Your Mom is here!" Jack looked and said, "No, that's my Henry's Mommy!"

3's: Joanna's new baby sister is due to arrive in September. She told her Aunt Jo-Jo "I'm getting a sister but she's just coming to visit!"

During nap time Killian heard the doorbell ring and said, "My Grammy's here!"

PATS ON THE BACK:

Infants & 1's: All the children did a great job with the Easter egg hunt. It was a first for some and a huge success!

Some of our babies are moving up to the 2's soon. We will surely miss them and it has been an absolute pleasure taking care of your little ones!
